

Mr. George Alexis

Mr. George Alexis, Managing Director of the Trinidad and Tobago Postal Corporation (TTPost), brings to the Organization extensive expertise in logistics, change management, business development, and supply chain management, with experience spanning both local and international postal, courier, and product distribution sectors. He holds an MBA from the Australian Institute of Business.

Mr. Alexis began his career in the United States of America, managing courier organizations in the New York Metropolitan area. In 1999, he was recruited by New Zealand Post/ Transend to help establish TTPost Couriers, Trinidad's first nationwide courier service, where he served as manager for eight years. During this time, he also oversaw TTPost's transport network.

Throughout his career he has conducted postal consultancies across the Caribbean, received specialized training in New Zealand and the U.S.A., and represented TTPost and the Government of Trinidad and Tobago at both regional (Caribbean Postal Union) and international (Universal Postal Union) forums. As the Technical Advisor to two Ministers of Public Utilities at regional and international forums, he has played and continues to play a key role in positioning TTPost as a global model and regional leader for postal transformation.

After taking up a seven-year opportunity in the media industry from 2008, Mr. Alexis returned to TTPost in 2015 during a critical phase of the Corporation's development, contributing to its vision of becoming a regional leader in consumer services, e-commerce and logistics.
