

Mr. George Alexis is the General Manager Operations at TTPost. He brings to the Corporation a wealth of Management expertise in Logistics, Change Management and Business Development, as well as international and local experience in post, courier and product distribution and supply chain management.

He holds a Master of Business Administration degree from the Australian Institute of Business, Mr. Alexis began his career in the USA, managing courier organizations in the New York Metropolitan area. In 1999, he was recruited by New Zealand Post for TTPost, to aid in the creation of the first local, nationwide courier service- TTPost Couriers, and served as its manager for eight years, along with the Corporation's Transport network.

His work experience includes conducting several postal consultancies in the Caribbean, as well as training in New Zealand and the USA and representing both TTPost and the Government of Trinidad and Tobago at regional (Caribbean Postal Union) and international (Universal Postal Union) forums. Having served as Technical Advisor to the Minister of Public Utilities, Mr. Alexis played a pivotal role in profiling TTPost on the world stage as the model and benchmark for successful Postal Transformation.

When not engaged in work-related activities, he enjoys travelling and spending time with family.

After leaving post for seven years to pursue interests in the media industry, Mr. Alexis returned to TTPost in late 2015, at a challenging time in the Corporation's development, to lend his expertise and experience to the further development of the vision of the organization as the regional leader in post e-commerce and logistics.
